even professionals may need professional help . . .

Here's why . . .

Nearly 10 million Americans suffer from alcohol abuse. Records show a high percentage among professionals, including lawyers and judges. Recognizing this societal problem, the State Bar of Michigan has established a voluntary Lawyers and Judges Counseling Program.

Through the efforts of the Lawyers and Judges Assistance Committee, professional help is now available to Michigan lawyers and judges whose professional and/or personal lives are threatened by the impact of career-related problems.

What you can do to help or to seek help . . .

If you, or someone you know, is in need of special assistance, please write or call collect:

(313) 352-6002

Consultation and Referral Provided Free of Charge

Lawyers and Judges Counseling Program
5793 West Maple, Suite 155
West Bloomfield, Michigan 48322

IMPORTANT

All inquiries are strictly confidential and are responded to by mental health professionals—independent of the State Bar of Michigan. Neither the State Bar of Michigan nor the Lawyers and Judges Assistance Committee will be given any information about the identity of any lawyer or judge who requests assistance through the program.
